Applicant Statement:

I certify that the information I have given in this application is true, correct and complete. If employed, I understand that false, inaccurate or misleading information in this application or interview(s) may result in termination.

I understand that employment is conditional on a background and criminal records check. I authorize the Field Institute of Taos (FIT) to investigate this application and to obtain additional information it deems appropriate to evaluate this application, including verification of the statements made in this application. I authorize the Field Institute of Taos to contact my former employers and references listed in this application. I consent that my former employers may furnish FIT with any information about my employment, including impressions and opinions about my work and reasons for my termination.

I hereby release and discharge FIT, and my current and former employers from all claims or actions for loss, liability, damage or expense which I now have or which may hereafter arise from the making of any inquiries about me or the furnishing of any information about me in connection with this application for employment.

If I am employed by FIT and thereafter seek employment elsewhere, I consent that FIT may furnish prospective employers with any information about my employment with it, including opinions and impressions about my work and reasons for my termination.

I understand and acknowledge that employment with FIT is "at-will" and without a fixed term. In the event of employment, I agree to abide by all policies, rules and regulations of FIT including, but not limited to those set forth in the FIT Employee Handbook. I understand and acknowledge that the Employee Handbook does not modify at-will employment and does not constitute an implied or express contract of employment.

I have read this Application for Employment and I understand the contents.
